The mission of the festival is to promote intellectual, festival and arthouse cinema among a wide audience through exclusive competitive and non-competitive screenings in the original language with the participation of film teams. In 2019 number of admissions reached 165,000. The program focus of the Odesa IFF is films of so called "art mainstream", ie those that are of high artistic quality and that are accessible to a wide audience. There are three competition programs: International and National, as well as the European Documentary Competition. The main arbiter of the Odesa Film Festival is the audience: the results of the audience vote determine the winner of the Grand Prix of the International and National Competition Programs. Other winners are determined by a professional jury. The Awards are presented during the Closing Ceremony at the Odesa Opera House. Його роль в історії української музики ХХ століття є основоположною, проте сторінки модерної творчості сьогодні невідомими. Завдяки дослідницькій роботі, продовж останніх 5 років було знайдено 27 невідомих творів 1910-х років. Їх оприлюднення змінять уявлення про хід музичної історії України. Ці полотна загалом регламентують процеси культурного відродження України 1960-х в умовах жорсткої ідеологічної системи Країни Рад. Невідомий пласт творчості складається з вокальних та інструментальних композицій, а їх залучення у культурно-освітній простір України сприятиме активізації публічної уваги до постаті видатного українця, а його модерний період творчості сприятиме розширенню кроскультурних уявлень про українське мистецтво доби модернізму. 3EVE42-5797-2	Prominent Events	LOT 4 Commemorative dates of prominent personalities in Ukrainian culture	National	Audial arts	Ukrainian Modernism: Unknown Liatoshynskiy	The year 2020 marks the 125th birth anniversary of Boris Lyatoshinsky, a classic of Ukrainian music. He played a defining role for Ukrainian 20th-century music, yet some pages of his modernist oeuvre still remain obscure. Research work of the past five years revealed the 28 previously unknown pieces from the 1910s. Their publication will change the view of the course of Ukrainian musical history. These works generally regulate the processes of cultural revival of Ukraine in the 1960s under the rigorous ideological system of the Soviet Union. The unknown layer of art consists of vocal and instrumental compositions. Introducing them into the cultural and educational space of Ukraine will contribute to drawing public attention to the figure of the famed Ukrainian; further research of his modernist period will broaden the cross-cultural understanding of the modernist Ukrainian art.
